

connect.

The CHCA serves as a public forum for the residents and supporters of Chestnut Hill. This is the association through which community policy is discussed, and is the voice of the community to the city of Philadelphia regarding development, land use planning, and zoning issues.

Find the dates and times of upcoming community meetings at chestnuthill.org/meetings

Learn more about zoning and development with our Free Community Toolkit at chestnuthill.org/community\_toolkit.php

As a CHCA member you can join other member volunteers in providing active stewardship of land use, planning, and zoning issues; working on environmental and transportation issues in our community; organizing community events; and serving on the CHCA Board of Directors.

belong.

Read your local paper published here in Chestnut Hill under local ownership, by real journalists and expert contributors. Neighborhood connections are made when you are current on all the news that matters to area residents. Your membership in the CHCA supports this distinctive aspect of our community.

Stroll down tree-lined streets, and know you are a part of keeping this historic neighborhood green through the CHCA's Green Space Initiative whose mission is to promote, plan for, and plant green spaces throughout Chestnut Hill.

Meet and socialize with other CHCA members when you attend our special members only events such as lectures, workshops, concerts, nature tours, and more.

Join the CHCA and be part of what makes this community great!
