

Chestnut Hill Historic District Inventory-Highland Avenue - West

29: Between 1849 and 1854; John Stallman, developer
A 3-story, 5-tank, stuccoed Italianate dwelling with gabled portico, wood aluminum-clad cornice, shallow hipped roof, and a 1-story attached garage added in 1947

Contributing

Deeds; Sidney 1849; B.P. 1936 # 5396; 1947 # 1060; 1959 # 7960

35: Between 1849 and 1854; John Stallman, developer
A 3-story, 3-tank, sidegabled dwelling with hipped ground floor porch, wood sills and aluminum-clad cornice. A 2-story brick wing was added in 1910.

Contributing

Deeds; Sidney 1849; B.P. 1910 # 5232; 1959 # 5670; 1969 # 53105

39-41: Between 1851 and 1855; John Stallman, developer
A 2 1/2-story, 4-rank, sidegabled dwelling with pent eave, aluminum siding, wood framed openings and gabled enclosed portico. Building was originally erected as a twin and later converted into a single dwelling.

Contributing

Deeds; B.P. 1920 # 9895

43: Between 1849 and 1855; John Stallman, developer
A 2-story, 3-tank, sidegabled frame dwelling with wood sills and frames, shed ground floor porch and modillion wood cornice.

Contributing

Deeds; Sidney 1849

47-49: Temperance Hall

ca. 1866; Chestnut Hill Division, Order of Sons of Temperance, owners A 2-story, 3-tank, stuccoed, frontgabled building with stone broken pediment frontispiece, and dentil wood cornice. The building has been altered from its original appearance and now serves as a dwelling but the general lines of the old Hall still remain.

Contributing

Deeds; Hopkins 1876

(-Shawnee Street-)

(South side)

100-102: 1925; Bessie Miller, developer; Charles E. McClure, contractor A 1 1/2-story, brick, sidegabled double house with ground floor porch created by a low overhanging roof, second floor hipped dormers with tripart sash, battered porch piers, and stuccoed second floor side elevation.

Contributing

B.P. 1925 # 8640; 1971 # 72102

106: Between 1871 and 1876; Thomas B. Raynor, owner

A 2 1/2-story, 3-rank, sidegabled, stuccoed Gothic Revival dwelling with arched openings, enclosed portico, wood sills, two frontgabled wall dormers, each containing a single arched opening, bracketed eaves, and a 2-story